Report of Seminar on 'Simplicity and Originality'

The Humanities and Applied Sciences Department successfully organized an Induction Lecture on "Simplicity and Originality" held on, 8th December 2022. The lecture was delivered by Principal ACE Dr. S.P. Kallurkar.

Sir enlightened, FE students with his own experience, such as; how important is it to spend time with nature? He talked about "panchakoshas" which seemingly cover atman and specified the name of Shri Dattaji Rane Sir as a living example of practicing simplicity.

An interesting activity was executed for students, to connect the dots, for practicing the out of box thinking. He also introduced Mahatma Gandhi ji's "swa ki stithi " to students, for understanding the concept of the simplicity and originality.

In total 89 students participated in the lecture enthusiastically.

Dr. Kallurkar Sir's life experiences and his expertise over ethics and values, made the session very perceptive and collaborative. Students took part in the gathering wholeheartedly and gave a constructive opinion and feedback.
